COUNCIL PROPOSES TO RELIEVE TAX PAYERS

WILL NOT EMPLOY BAND DIRECTOR SAY OFFICIALS FOLLOWING SESSION

The city council will not employ a band director for 1927, it was announced following the meeting Tuesday night.

The council will give the benefit of the tax formerly levied for the band to the property owners in due time.

The council points out that at the time of the voting of the tax that no revenue was available for several months and it was necessary to borrow. This fund has been on a borrowing basis ever since. In other words the funds are a year behind.

If no band director is employed this year the fund will be balanced.

As the tax was voted the council is privileged to make the apportionment as seems best. The tax was voted as a band and park tax, but both together. In the past it has been the policy of the council to make an equal division of the tax.

It is pointed out that there remains some indebtedness against the parks for property purchased and the tax this year will be applied to the payment of this obligation.

It is practically assured that the tax will be reduced in 1928 if no band director is employed.

The city points out that there is no municipal band. The council takes into consideration the finances of the city and after very careful thought has decided upon this plan. The council is not opposed to a smaller division of the funds for band purposes and it is pointed out that the council would not oppose $25 per month to assist in the retention of a director.

The band and park tax fund has expended in 1926 for band must be some obligations to pay. All the money paid out of collections this year and taking into consideration the debt of that obligation for 1928 and these funds will come from the levy collected in January 1928. After that the city is willing to pass back to the property owners, a portion or all of the 10c tax.

The council believes the people will approve this policy, it is pointed out. There is no band as was the case when the tax was voted. The old band has been dissolved and all we have is a high school band.

The council looks with interest upon the proposal that the school board retain for its faculty one who can teach and give some time to the band. In this case the city will help.

CAMERON BASS CLUB PLANS IMPROVEMENTS

APPLY FOR FISH TO STOCK LAKE AND ADD NEW MEMBERS TO ROLL

The Cameron Bass Club held its regular meeting on last Friday night in the office of Dr. E. R. Zellner dentist, with refreshments of sandwiches and coffee.

The new members admitted to the club are: L. Turner, Dr. W. R. Newton, Conn Moody, Rev. L. J. Power and J. B. White.

Plans for improving the lake were made and a committee was appointed to take up with the state game department the matter of obtaining a supply of white perch for the lake.

The club having leased the Hefley lake here more than a year ago has one of the finest fishing and outing places in the state. The membership has been increased from 25 to 30.

Plans now under way call for the erection of a bridge at the lake to the island in the center and the building of wire fences about the beds for the protection of the small bass and fish. The committee on grounds will also place a few tops in the lake for the protection of the white perch.

The lake is restricted to the use of members and their families.

Mr. and Mrs. Shofner Stirling are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine baby boy, born at the Cameron Hospital, Saturday January 15, 1927. He has been named William Charles Stirling.

LAPSE OF MEMORY IS CLAIMED SAYS REPORT

FORMER POSTAL EMPLOYEE OF CAMERON RETURNS FROM NEW MEXICO

Elbert Martin, former employee of the local postal service as route carrier who disappeared from his home here on October 21, 1926 has been located in Houston, according to advice received here Tuesday.

Martin was said to have returned to Houston from Clovis, New Mexico, and is now with his wife and baby. The family left here shortly after Martin's disappearance, moving to Houston.

According to information received here, the missing man is said to claim a lapse of memory and does not remember the time of his departure.

When he left Cameron last October he drove a Chevrolet car. It is reported here that Martin does not recall where he left his car. He came to himself, according to reports, in Clovis, New Mexico.

Mr. Martin was born and reared here. A search lasting over a period of four months has been in progress for him and his return to his family at Houston was gratifying to their friends here.

At the time of his disappearance the sheriff here assisted the family in the search but no trace of him could be found. Both Mr. and Mrs. Martin are well known here and esteemed by their friends. Mrs. Martin was an active church worker and her many friends here will be pleased to learn that the family is now together in Houston.

AGREE ON LOANS TO EX SERVICE MEN

EARLY CONSIDERATION BY CONGRESS OF PROPOSAL PROMISED

Washington, Jan. 19.—Direct loans to former service men or their bonus certificates by the Veteran's Bureau was agreed upon Wednesday at a White House conference and early congressional consideration of the proposal was promised.

Director Hines of the bureau said after a conference with President Coolidge that there was an obligation on the part of the government to make loans and he would ask Congress to authorize it.

Chairman Green of the House Ways and Means Committee announced later that he would ask the committee to consider at an early date an authorization for the bureau to make the loans.

Gen. Hines would have the Veteran's Bureau act as a supplementary service to the banks, thus permitting veterans to obtain loans either from the banks or the Government at the same interest rate—6 per cent. Money for the insurance certificates already has been appropriated up to their present value and this could be used, he said, to make the loans. Only a small additional appropriation to meet the cost of increased administrative work would be required.

Gen. Hines told the President that banks in every state were now lending on the insurance certificates and that about 17,000 loans with a value of $1,643,000 had been made.

The 3,000,000 certificates now outstanding had a total value of $215,000,000 on January 1 and this will increase, it is estimated, to a total value of $341,000,000 by next Jan. 1.

Administration leaders in Congress have been awaiting the word of approval given Wednesday at the White House before taking up several bills proposing that the Government be permitted to make the loans.

"I Will Tell Everything Before I Die in the Big Electric Chair"

BY J. B. WHITE

"It is all a dream to me. I cannot tell why I did it. I realize that something terrible has happened but I cannot tell why. You ask me why I did it and I ask you the same question for I do not know any more than you why I did it."

Thus spoke George J. Hassell alleged slayer of 13 and confessed slayer of his wife and eight children at their farm home in Farmer County, for which he was sentenced to the electric chair in Farewell, in discussing the crime and giving a story of his life.

Hassell was in the Milam County jail Saturday in custody of Sheriff J. H. Martin of Farmer County, on their way to the walls at Huntsville where Hassell will be placed in solitary confinement to await execution on February 25 for the crime which he confessed and for which he was found guilty by a jury at Farewell.

In the dim lighted cell with massive gray bars of steel, Hassell talked freely of his life, kept up a running fire of conversation, joked with prisoners and boasted that he would walk to his death "to show them how a brave man can die, if you please to call it brave." The sheriff with his prisoner accompanied by Sam Hoffman, deputy sheriff at Muie Shoe, Texas, and Bill Massey from Farewell, reached Cameron at night fall and Hassell was placed in jail for safe keeping over night by Sheriff Blaylock.

Hassell, handcuffed and closely guarded, when placed in his cell paced rapidly back and forth. "I am not scared or nervous," he said, "as you might think. I am just limbering up a bit after this long ride. We came from Abilene today. I didn't get much to eat yesterday and that made me a little mad. I got just a few days to live but I am not afraid to die. I'll show them how a brave man can die, if you call it brave. I hope they give me plenty to eat and lots of coffee to drink."

When seen by the newspaper man Hassell was in a bad humor, swearing a little but on the whole cheerful about his fate. He took the newspapers to task for some things they have printed. He showed deep interest in the public mind and called for newspapers so he could read what they were saying about him. "I'll not tell you anything. You are just like the other newspaper men. You smoke only cigarettes. Not one of them has yet given me a cigar. Come back after supper and bring some cigars and I will tell you something."

The newspaper man returning after supper found Hassell seated on the floor of his cell with his shoes off. "We'll I've cooled down some," he said and thanked the reporter for some fine cigars. He immediately lighted one and continued to smoke one after another throughout the hour and a half in which he talked much of his life but refrained from any detailed discussion of the crime for which he is to die on February 25.

"I'll tell everything before the end," he said. "I have 41 days to live but that is plenty of time. Before they put me in the big chair, I'll make a complete statement. I am going to tell the answers to all those questions you are asking me when the time comes. I don't want any misunderstanding."

Cameron May Soon Have Hatchery Plant

Cameron is soon to have a chicken hatchery, according to announcement from the Commercial Club.

The club, it is said, has concluded a contract with F. W. Kazmier of Bryan to come to Cameron and install this plant. The hatchery will, it is said be a 12,000 egg plant and will serve the needs for the present time.

According to those in touch with the plans for the hatchery, the plant will be increased as the demand mounts.

The club has been working on this matter for more than a year and has had numerous offers from men interested in the business but Mr. Kazmier was the successful bidder for the approval of the club.

Mr. Kazmier is a widely known poultry man, now operating a hatchery and poultry farm at Bryan and shipping chickens over a wide area of the south.

According to reports from John W. Young, chairman of the home industry and factory committee of the club, Mr. Kazmier is to be in Cameron this week to begin preparations for the plant.

Mr. C. A. Rachiu happened to a painful accident Thursday when he fell from a ladder, fracturing three ribs and sustaining other painful injuries. He was carried to a sanitarium at Temple and it is thought that he will recover.

ACCEPTS WITH HUMILITY PLACE AT HEAD OF THE GOVERNMENT

Austin, Tex., Jan. 18.—Acclaimed by the largest inaugural crowd of Texas history and introduced as a "giant crusader for the good and the pure" Dan Moody, 33, Tuesday at 12:40 o'clock became Texas' youngest governor.

He succeeded Miriam A. Ferguson, first woman governor of the state who admonished the red-haired virile Moody that "the public generally expects too much of the governor and is all too much inclined to deny credit for what has been done."

Mrs. Ferguson said that the burdens of the office had been "grievous to bear" and declared "while my time of office has been shortened, my life has been lengthened."

Miriam Glad To End Term
Shortly before taking her place on the inaugural platform, Mrs. Ferguson told the Associated Press. "I'm sitting on top of the world. It soon will be all over and I'm glad to be relieved of such grievous responsibilities."

Moody, who in his inaugural address pleaded for the co-operation of the legislature, announced that he would ask for a joint session of the house and senate to hear his first message.

Although Governor Ferguson and her family left the executive mansion for a local hotel, Moody and his 29 year old wife, the youngest mistress

Good Elimination Is Essential to Good Health.

THE kidneys are the blood filters. If they fail to function properly there is apt to be a retention of toxic poisons in the blood. A dull, languid feeling and, sometimes, toxic backaches, headaches, and dizziness are symptoms of this condition. Further evidence of improper kidney function is often found in burning or scanty passage of secretions. Each year more and more people are learning the value of Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, in this condition. Scarcely a nook or hamlet anywhere but has many enthusiastic users. Strength of Steel Body of Chevrolet Shown By Crash

The strength and sturdiness built into the Chevrolet closed car bodies was strikingly proved recently when 5000 pounds of steel frames fell five floors from the roof of the Great Western Freight Depot in Minneapolis, Minnesota, to the top of a Chevrolet Sedan. The body of the car was uninjured.

The radiator, however, was smashed in one place and the springs of the car broken, while the body was not even scratched. The steel frames, fifty feet long, twenty-five feet wide and ten feet in height, were being hoisted to the top of the building downward with several tons of bricks.

Large crowds assembled at the scene of the accident were strongly

BUILD HOMES MORE SAFE

On December 27 in a California town, a little girl three years old was trapped in her bed room by fire and burned to death. The fire broke out in the bedroom where she was sleeping, during the daytime, and spread so rapidly that rescue was prevented and the family, just finishing dinner, barely escaped with their lives, some being badly burned. It seems impossible that a fire could gain such headway in so short a time, and yet such tragedies are daily recorded in the papers of the country.

Most of the fires start on the inside of buildings. Every home should have proper first steps at strategic points. These will help make it reasonably safe. The National Board of Fire Underwriters has published a pamphlet entitled, "Dwelling Houses," and goes into this matter quite thoroughly and also gives the minimum specifications for the construction of small dwellings drawn up by the Hoover Committee, of which the National Board Consulting Engineer is chairman.

If the manufacturers of building material, contractors and supply men would simply co-operate with the insurance companies in their endeavor to encourage the erection of buildings of a fire resisting character, thousands of lives could be saved annually.

H. G. HASTINGS CO., SEEDSMEN, ATLANTA, GA.

THAT HOLE IN THE FARM POCKET

TIME TO QUIT "BLOWING IN" OUR HARD-EARNED MONEY FOR BOUGHT FOOD.

Atlanta, Ga.—(Special.)—"There is a great big hole in the South's farm pocket that lets out our farm money as fast as it comes in," said H. G. Hastings, recognized farm authority, and President of the Georgia Association, a state-wide development organization that has for its major object the betterment of farm conditions.

"So far as we know, no other farm section or country in the world has ever been able to stand such an enormous and steady drain of its money life-blood for food and grain as has the South, without complete farm bankruptcy and collapse for the last fifty or sixty years."

Our farm pockets have had just as big holes at the bottom as they have had at the top, so to speak. As fast as our money for cotton, or other cash crop, went in at the top of the pocket, just so fast did it slip through that hole at the bottom for bread and meat and grain.

A lot of our good folks are looking to Washington for government help, which probably won't come. No use to look that far away. The source of most of our trouble is right at home. It's the empty corn crib and oat bin, the empty hog pen and smoke-house, the lack of hay and forage in barn or stack, milking tin cans of condensed milk instead of a good cow; few eggs, few chickens, and eating New Jersey, Michigan or California grown vegetables and fruits via the tin can route instead of from the home orchard and gardens.

Some food items we necessarily must buy, coffee, salt, sugar, etc., but there is absolutely no sense in the way we do on this food question. It's too foolish and unnecessary, this "paper bag farming," as someone called it. Some of our farm folks are more glibly than others on this particular brand of poverty-producing foolishness, but every one of us is guilty in greater or less degree.

Diversified farm operations, at least to the full extent of home needs from home acres, is the first step away from present bad farm conditions to permanent farm prosperity. Reverse the present way of taking the wagon or truck or automobile to town empty and bringing it back full. Town is the place for you to sell food items instead of the place to buy most of them.

Grain, meat, hay and forage from home acres, fresh vegetables and fruit from your garden and orchard or in cans on closet shelves pay no long line of wholesale and retail profits and railroad freight rates. Every farmer in the South has his and his family's salvation in his own hands this spring. Sew up that hole in the farm pocket beginning now.

and millions in property withheld from destruction.

With such sad cases before us, it is too much to ask public co-operation in the campaign against fire?

Salts Fine for Aching Kidneys

Eating too much meat may clog the kidneys, then the back hurts.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness, and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days, and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also helps neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus helping to relieve bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless, inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which everybody should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in trying a correct kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

GREETINGS FROM DAN MOODY, FAREWELL BY MRS. FERGUSON

Austin, Texas, Jan. 18.—Following is the text of the speech of Gov. Dan Moody at the inauguration ceremony Tuesday:

"Mr. Chief Justice, Members of the Legislature, Ladies and Gentlemen: The emotions of this hour beggar description, and thoughts surge in my mind crying for utterance, which in the feebleness of my speech prudence bids me not attempt to express. I accept this responsibility with gratitude and humility. Through the generosity of a gracious people I am permitted to take the oath and assume the duties of the most important office within the gift of the people of Texas. I trust thus reposed in me, and my appreciation of their confidence. It is with humility that I approach the discharge of the responsibilities of this office.

"I recognize that the people of Texas hold their public offices in sacred trust. And the officials of Texas, in the proper appreciation of the attitude which the people have toward public office, should feel that from the infinite spaces of this State they say to their officers what the Lord said to Moses in the wilderness of Mount Sinai, 'Put off thy shoes from thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground.'

"The people expect much of this administration, and its success is very largely bound up in the attitude of the executive, the Senate and the House of Representatives toward public affairs. The character of mutual responsibility which falls upon these officers and the close contact which they have, demand the largest measure of co-operation between both the executive and legislative branches of government. As for me, I promise liberal co-operation, and I ask at their hands co-operation and friendly counsel. None of us lays claim or makes boast of genius; our hope for success and for the promotion of the purposes of government to protect the safety, happiness and prosperity of the people, lies in the practice of integrity and the simple virtues. We should have but one guide to direct our course, and that is the public interest.

"The people of Texas commission us to place their government upon a plane which will restore public confidence in existing forms and receive the respect of all men. We are expected to keep our feet in the path of justice, redeem the right, and by our course of official conduct exemplify the high standards of public service which they expect and demand.

"Whatever I may bring to this trust is freely and fully given to the service of this cause and the discharge of those responsibilities.

"And now as we go to give ourselves to the service of the public interest, I ask, as did the Hebrew of old that God 'give me now knowledge and wisdom to come in and go out before this people; for who can govern this people that is become so great?'"

Sold Everywhere

Austin, Texas, Jan. 18.—Following is the text of the far-well speech of Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson at the inauguration ceremonies:

"In the natural order of events the time has come for me to surrender the powers and privileges of the Governor's office to my successor. The people have spoken and every good citizen should bow to the will of the majority.

"I shall not dwell at length on the achievements of my administration. My record speaks for itself. It can not be changed—either added to or taken from.

"Not First To Be Hated"

"If in the passion and prejudice of the hour my mistakes are magnified and my achievements are minimized, I shall find consolation in the fact that I was not the first governor who has had to suffer the same penalty as the price for political honor.

"If I am condemned and criticized I shall not murmur because I remember that Sam Houston, the father of Texas, paid the same penalty. If I am hated and abused I shall forgive my enemies and find comfort in the recollection that Jim Hogg, when he laid down the reins of power, was also hated and abused.

"Regardless of the discussion of the passing hour I am sure that posterity will give me credit for what I have done and left undone.

"The office of Governor has its trials and tribulations, its sunshine and its shadows, its satisfaction and its disappointments. The public generally expects too much of the Governor. In retiring to private life I do so with malice toward none and good will toward all. While my term of office has been shortened my life has been lengthened.

"For a season, at least, I shall tarry in our capital city.

"Bows To Will Of People."

"My friends, the people in their sovereign right have elected another Governor. Their verdict at the polls was what they wanted not only another man for Governor, but they said they wanted a young man for governor. Frankly he was not my choice for governor. He may not have been your choice. But be that as it may, whether he likes it or not, he is now your Governor. As for me I bow to the voice of the people and bid him Godspeed as he assumes the responsibility of office. Let us all, regardless of past differences, help and hold up the hands of the people's choice in the interest of the public good. If he makes a success, we all ought to be pleased—if he makes a failure, some of you can be pleased.

"I congratulate Mr. Moody upon his election. His election as a 33-year-old Governor was about as novel as my election as a woman Governor. Time alone will prove whether the people have acted wisely in either instance.

"Therefore, my friends, with these few passing remarks it is my privilege and my pleasure to present to you your new Governor, Mr. Daniel J. Moody. Hear ye him."

B. Y. P. U. TO GIVE RECEPTION FOR MR. BLACK

On Friday evening, January 21st the B. Y. P. U. will give a reception for Mr. Black. This reception will be in the form of a luncheon or a banquet, and it is hoped to be the beginning of a better day for the young people of this church. We have as fine a group of young people as any church and they have been doing good work, but with this trained leader to assist them in planning their programs and going forward we expect still better things. You will receive a written invitation to this luncheon if you are expected to be there. They are arranging to have eighty or ninety people in this entertainment.

At this meeting plans will be made for a B. Y. P. U. Training School to be held next week. It is hoped by Mr. Black that we will have three large classes in this school; one for the Junior B. Y. P. U., the Intermediate B. Y. P. U. and one for the Senior B. Y. P. U. It will be well for a large number of our people to take these courses so they will be able to assist the young people in going forward with their work, as from time to time the young will need the help and council of the older people.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

Thursday evening, January 20th at 7 o'clock the officers and teachers of the Sunday School will meet for their regular monthly meeting.

Friday evening at seven o'clock the B. Y. P. U. will give a reception for Mr. Black, at which time there will be speeches made from various departments of the church welcoming Mr. Black into the activities of the church life in general.

"You will find enclosed a check for $_____ which is a tithe of my salary for my church at home." This is a statement that the pastor finds frequently in letters that he receives these days. We are happy to know that our people who are away from home have learned the doctrine of the tithe and are practicing it and remembering their church relations at home.

The Sunbeams meet every Sunday at the church at 2 p. m. The mothers are urged to get their children into this meeting. They are under the direction now of Miss Louise Denson and we know that they will be led and taught in the right way.

Next week there will be a B. Y. P. U. Training School at our church. Three classes: one for the Juniors, one for the Intermediates and one for the Seniors. It is hoped that a large number of our people will take advantage of these courses.

The choir was recently re-organized under the direction of Mr. Black and new members have come into the choir, and we believe that with the co-operation of our people and the leadership of Mr. Black, it will be only a few weeks until we will be having music that will be attractive to the people of the community.

Next week The Messenger starts on its larger tour, that is to reach every Baptist community in the County. In the last meeting of the Executive Board of the Milam County Baptist Association the Board asked that the pastor send this paper to the other churches in order that we might stimulate the work there and carry the program of our Associational Meetings.

This week's Messenger carries the Annual report of the Treasurer for 1926.

Last Sunday night a large audience heard Dr. Scarbrough bring a great message on the Conquest Campaign.

Last Monday afternoon Mr. Black talked with the ladies at their meeting and ask them to do nine things for the young people of our church. 1. Give their moral support to the B. Y. P. U., in the presence of their children. 2. Avoid hindrances, such as auto rides at B. Y. P. U. time. 3. Bring your children to the B. Y. P. U. 4. Encourage Bible reading in the home. 5. Establish the family altar and use the daily readings of the B. Y. P. U. for the scripture lesson. 6. Visit the Union. 7. Preaching attendance Sunday evening of the Intermediates and Juniors depend very largely on the parents. 8. Furnish leaders and sponsors for the various organizations. 9. Take the B. Y. P. U. Study Course next week.

Beginning Friday night, January 28 there will be a fifth Sunday meeting program carried out at the First Baptist church at Rockdale, continuing through Saturday and Sunday.

MORE IN SUNDAY SCHOOL

In the pastor's meeting last Tuesday morning it was agreed that there should be a united movement among the church people of Cameron to get more people in our Sunday Schools, and church services. One of the pastors was asked to bring in a recommendation next Tuesday for adoption by the pastors as to a report for the papers each week.

It was believed that to publish the attendance at each school would stimulate interest. It was also thought that since the churches are very unequal in membership, that that would not be exactly fair, so some general scale of grading will be proposed, and the results of each Sunday given in the papers.

It was also believed and discussed that the editors of the Cameron papers would be glad to carry this news item each week. The goal will quiet likely be the resident membership of each of the churches.

This is not started as a contest, in which it is planned to have a rapid growth for a short time, and then dwindle away, but it is hoped that by the constant reminding the people of the stand of their church, they will rally to life the standard.

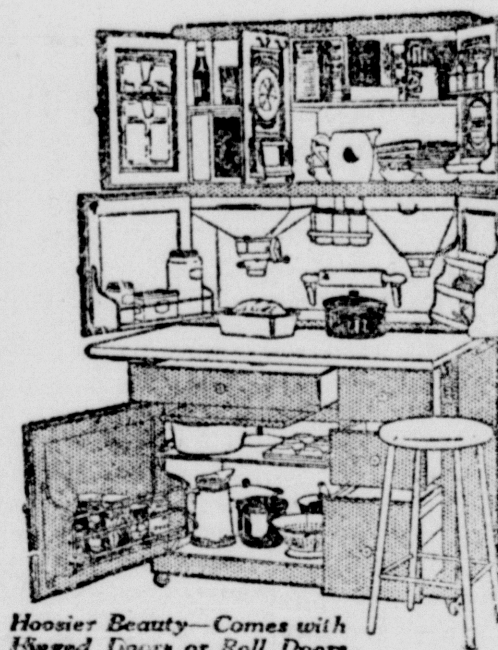

The organization for the Conquest Campaign will be set up soon in our church. The pastor presented briefly the things in the Campaign last Sunday morning.

Your HOME Should Come First

There are many who have just started house-keeping and will be in the market for furniture and other household goods.

To these we especially invite to call and see our different lines. You will be surprised how cheap you can furnish your home with good, dependable furniture. There have been times in the past few years when it was hard for many young couples to furnish their home, even in good, medium priced goods, on account of the price, but that is not the case today as the goods are very reasonable, and we can fix up a complete house-keeping outfit at a surprisingly low price.

Figure with us and let us show you.

HOOSIER Cabinets

Have you seen the New Hoosier. A newer and better cabinet at a much less price. When you buy a Hoosier you buy the best. Come and see the new models.

There should be no reproach after the last flower is placed at the foot of the pale, white figure—no misgivings for little details neglected, for the last services unwittingly mis-handled.

The last tribute should be paid in a fitting manner—by a professional entirely capable. Our twenty-eight years of experience testify in themselves to the fact that sympathetic tactful consideration of those in sorrow is only a small part of our share in your last personal service.

K. P. LODGE PLANS WORK FOR YEAR

The International extension program announced recently by officers of the Supreme Lodge Knights of Pythias, will, in a large measure, direct the activities of Milam Lodge, according to Chancellor Commander Jake Posey who was recently installed with eight other officers of the lodge to direct the work of the Pythian fraternity in this city during the year. The program, includes among other activities a definite plan to increase the social features, quicken interest in community service and to make a stronger appeal to worthy citizens to become members of the Order. The lodge has set as a mark in the increase of its membership under the general plan announced by the Supreme Lodge to secure a twenty-per cent net gain during the year.

Commenting on the outline for the new year, Chancellor Commander, Jake Posey said: "The program is intended to make the lodge a real factor in the life of the community and to aid in the extension of the benefits of fraternal membership by performing its share in the great national movement. The movement is supported by nearly one million members in the United States and Canada. We have over 6,400 lodges and it is the purpose of the program of activity to make every one of these lodges the center of fraternal accomplishment in performing the service for which the fraternity was founded—to make better homes and better communities in which to live.

"The Pythian Order now operates eighteen homes for aged members, their widows and orphans. Five other states are building homes. Investment in this phase of Pythian endeavor amounts to more than $4,000,000 and over 2,000 men, women and children are provided with home comforts. Five grand domains have established educational trust funds by which worthy young men and women are given opportunity for advanced college training. Nearly two hundred are now being kept in colleges through loans from these funds.

"The Pythian Sisters, the woman's auxiliary of the Order has a membership of nearly a half million and distributes annually more than $250,000 for the care of orphaned children and for the comforts of the aged and poverty stricken.

The Military Department is very active and is offering to the young membership a military training almost equal to that obtained in barracks maintained by the various states.

"The Insurance Department has celebrated its forty-ninth birthday by moving into its new home office in Indianapolis, Indiana, located on the war memorial plaza. his branch of the Order has distributed over $60,000,000 to widows and orphans. It has nearly 100,000 members and insurance for home protection amounting to over $120,000,000.

"In every respect the financial condition of the Order is gratifying. The Subordinate Lodges distributed last year $1,709,000 for relief. The assets of Grand and Subordinate lodges is over $30,000,000, a gain of over $1,015,000 for the year, and in 1926 sixty-six lodges built their own homes costing more than $8,000,000. Our lodge in adopting this program will take definite steps to carry out the objectives of other lodges over the Supreme Domain."

The following officers were installed:

Chancellor Commander, Jake Posey.
Vice-Chancellor, Earl K. Adrian.
Master of Finance and Keeper of Records and Seal, Fred Henry.
Master at Arms, Ray Casey.
Master of Works, C. E. Porterfield.
Prelate, W. G. Gillis.
Outer Guard, Glenn Flinn.
Inner Guard, W. B. Denson.

Here Girls, Write
A Story On Meat
And Win A Prize

Local high-school girls are to be given an opportunity to win a university scholarship through competition in a national meat story contest, according to formal announcement of the event which has just been sent out to home economic teachers by the National Live Stock and Meat Board. Several scholarships are being offered, it is said. It is the fourth annual contest to be sponsored by this institution of research and education.

To compete, a student must write a story or theme on some phase of the subject of meat or the live-stock industry. The stories are to be judged by a committee of home economics authorities. Dr. Louise Stanley, chief of the bureau of home economics, United States Department of Agriculture, who has been chairman of the judging committee for the three previous contests, will again serve in this capacity, it is said.

The Board gives as the reason for this annual competition for scholarships a desire to stimulate a greater interest in the study of home economics, a subject which is considered of great importance to the coming generations of housewives. It is pointed out that today education is playing a most important part in the solution of the housewife's many problems. More than 10,000 girls competed last year, it is said, and the contest directors express the belief that even more will enroll for the present contest which will come to a close on March 15.

The contest has been most successful due to the fact that teachers have found it especially valuable as a class project, says the Board's statement.

Mrs. J. D. Eplen entertained twenty little boys and girls on last Thursday afternoon, January 13, 1927 in honor of her little son, Morris Eplen's third birthday.

The pink and gold color scheme was very beautifully carried out. The shades were drawn, lights were dimmed and pink candles gleamed radiantly throughout the reception rooms.

The hostess was assisted in entertaining the little folks by Mrs. J. L. Coleman. Games were enjoyed by this merry group and they very eagerly listened to interesting stories told by Mrs. Eplen.

In the dining room a birthday cake graced the table with three tiny pink candles burning on the cake. In cutting the cake, Jim Coleman Jr., received the ring; Joe Lloyd Mitchell, the thimble; Mary Ann Green the button and Frances Kilian the horseshoe. In pulling strings, from the grab bag the girls received dolls and the boys horns.

WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENT

The following announcement will be of great interest to friends in Cameron, as the groom-to-be, Dr. Emil Klatt, formerly lived in Cameron. He is the son of Mrs. J. F. Guggolz, received his A. B. and B. S. Degree at State University and last year completed his course at the Medical Department of the University of Texas at Galveston where he was very popular in social circles; at present he is an interne at the John Sealy Hospital at Galveston. Dr. Klatt will return to Cameron after July 15 this year and will locate in Cameron.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Armstrong announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Armstrong to Dr. Emil Klatt, son of Mrs. J. F. Guggolz of Cameron, the wedding to be solemnized at Trinity Church in May.

The announcement was made at an elegantly appointed luncheon given at noon by the charming bride-elect's younger sister, Miss Esther Armstrong, a debutant of next year, who is home from National Park Seminary Washington, D. C. for the Christmas holidays.

The drawing room and living room as well as dining room, gave evidence of affectionate interest among the invited guests, the close friends of the charming honoree, being beautifully expressed in gorgeous flowers.

The luncheon table in the dining room was exquisite in its appointments. The table was covered in a handsome embroidered cut work and lace cloth. A bridal motif was emphasized in the floral centerpiece, a long plateau effect of bride roses, white carnations, lilies of the valley and narcissi blossoms. Bordered in soft white silk, a finishing touch was given in tiny white satin ribbon bows, and soft billowy white illusion.

A corsage bouquet of pink Killarney roses and lilies of the valley was worn by the honor guest.

Place cards were miniature cupids holding a horn which held the note, revealing the announcement, which when read caused great rejoicing and the bride-to-be showered with hearty good wishes for future happiness.

The bride-to-be is one of Galveston's loveliest young girls, of brilliant mind and charm of personality, which has always made her a great social favorite. She is a graduate of Westover College, Millsbury, Conn., and University of Maine. As a debutante of three years ago, she was crowned queen of the royal court of King Frivolous, M. M. Bal Masque, a gorgeous coronation, when as royal consort she reigned with queenly dignity, magnificently attired in robes of the Spanish court.

Telegrams of congratulations were received from the bride-elect's brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Winifred Ernest Eaton of East Orange, New Jersey and her grandmother, Mrs. Walter Gresham, wife of the late Col. Gresham, former congressman who for many years represented Galveston's interests at the national capital, and bridegroom's mother at Cameron.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The Missionary Society met in circles Monday afternoon, and plans were made for the New Year.

Circle one met with Mrs. J. F. Brown with fourteen present. The devotional was led by Mrs. Joe Lindsey. Topics on Stewardship and Tithing were presented by Mrs. B. J. Baskin.

The hostess served coffee, nut cake and sweet pickles.

Circle two met with Mrs. Willard McCall with sixteen present. Six new members were welcomed into the circle. Mrs. C. S. Peyton led the voice lesson. A business session was held and committees were appointed. The circle voted to send Mrs. M. M. Johnson, retired leader of circle two a note of thanks for her splendid leadership. The hostess served sandwiches, tea and angel cake squares.

Circle three met with Mrs. C. N. Green with fourteen present. The devotional was led by Mrs. Frank Plaster. The topic of Stewardship and Tithing was discussed. Mrs. F. W. Cheeves and Miss Carolyn Cheeves assisted the hostess in serving chicken salad, fruit cake and hot tea.

BROTHERHOOD BANQUET

The Methodist Men's Brotherhood enjoyed a banquet in the basement of the Methodist church on Wednesday evening, the stunt and musical program being a treat. Miss Eloise Rogers sang most delightfully and Miss Dorothy Blaylock's readings were artistic. The male quartet composed of Messrs. A. C. Freeman, W. H. Stafford, T. A. Fisher and W. A. Bonds gave two favorite selections.

An express package was received by the members of the Methodist church at Cameron at which was a clever take-off on Rev. L. J. Power, their new pastor. This package was sent from Orange, Texas, a former pastorate of Mr. Power. On inspection the contents of the package revealed a cartoon, labeled "Sermons 1492 to 1926. The package also contained a hunting suit, fishing tackle, and gun of the oldest type which Mr. Power used while at Orange. Best of all was inclosed a bill to the members of the church for voice lessons from Prof. Bray of the correspondence school in voice, for lessons taken by Mr. Power while at Orange, stating that the church there had noted no improvement in his singing, and they thought that Cameron should pay the bill. A book of hunting and fishing stories was sent, which had been made by the members at Orange containing hunting and fishing stories they had heard "Jack Power" tell over and over. Mr. Power afforded much laughter when he dressed in his hunting outfit, and carried his gun and fishing cane. T. A. Fisher of the Brotherhood now introduced Mr. Power to Bishop Sam R. Hay and Presiding Elder L. B. Elrod, known formerly as the pastor, Rev. L. J. Power, but now as "Jack Power" hunter and fisher.

Bishop Hay was in turn introduced to the audience by Mr. Power, as the principal speaker of the evening, and he truly made a wonderful talk using as his theme "The class of men that make up the country today."

All the guests found places at the banquet tables where a delightful menu was served by ladies of the Missionary Society. Rev. Elrod asked the blessing and Rev. Watts, an out of town guest, dismissed this merry crowd at a late hour.

DANCE AT WAYSIDE FRIDAY

The dance at Wayside Inn last Friday night was well attended in spite of the extraordinary cold weather. J. D. Lewis and his orchestra furnished the music.

The same orchestra will furnish the music for the dance Friday night. The building is well heated and is most comfortable even in extreme cold weather. Mr. Cammer says that the dance will be held rain or shine and that he is expecting a large crowd.

MR. & MRS. BRIDGE CLUB

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Green very charmingly entertained Tuesday evening for the Mr. and Mrs. Bridge Club at their home in the Green Addition.

Three tables were arranged for members and guests. A number of games were enjoyed, and in conclusion high score went to S. E. Dossett, a tea pot of beautiful design. Low score went to Edwin Bigbee, a flower bowl.

The hostess served a delectable salad plate with hot chocolate. Those present beside club members were: Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bigbee, Mrs. B. Miller and S. E. Dossett.

BRIDGE LUNCHEON

Mrs. W. B. Denson very charmingly entertained with a bridge luncheon at her home on last Saturday afternoon at one o'clock.

The color scheme of blue and yellow was very effectively carried out in score cards, place cards and pads. Beautiful yellow roses were used as decorations in the reception suite. Two tables were arranged where a delightful three course luncheon was served and each guest found their place by place cards with clever verses. Beautiful calendas centered the tables. Following the luncheon, a series of games of bridge were enjoyed. In high cut Misses Jennie Tyson and Martha Lou Hooks received a beautiful corsage of sweet peas in colonial design.

Covers were laid for Misses Eloise Rogers, Bess Wiley, Dallis Young, Bill Fontaine, Martha Lou Hooks, Jennie Tyson, Mrs. Edwin Bigbee and the hostess, Mrs. W. B. Denson.

Little Miss Beryl Bigbee was an adorable little guest on this occasion.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH INAUGURATES BISHOPS' CRUSADE

Plans have been completed for two Crusading Centers in the Diocese of Texas in connection with the Bishops' Crusade in the Episcopal church, which began Sunday, January 9th, and will be conducted throughout the United States to re-awaken the membership to the duties and opportunities of active Christian citizenship.

The Crusade in this Diocese will be a part of the great national movement in which three hundred of the leading Bishops Presbyters and Laymen of the church will simultaneously, during January and February, visit every section of the country and conduct services and mass meetings for the promotion of what has been described as "the most unique religious movement in the history of this church in America."

The Crusade Centers in the Diocese of Texas will be Christ Church, Houston, January 23 to January 28, and St. David's church, Austin, January 30 to February 4. The Rt. Rev. William Theodotus Capers, D. D., Bishop of West Texas, will be the Crusading Bishop to begin the Crusade in Christ Church, Houston, Sunday night, January 23rd at eight p. m. Bishop Capers will also preach the Council Sermon in Christ Church that morning when the Seventy-eighth annual council of the Diocese will convene for the Corporate Communion.

The Crusade will be the great feature of the Council, which will bring to Houston several hundred delegates and visitors from all over the Diocese. There will be a celebration of the Holy Communion every morning during the Crusade. There will also be a noon-day intercessory service and preaching at eight o'clock each night through Friday the 28.

The Crusader assisting Bishop Capers will be the Rev. Elmore McKee, Rector of St. Paul's Church, New Haven, Connecticut and the Layman Crusader will be Mr. William J. Dodge of Chattanooga, Tennessee. Mr. McKee will conduct a series of conferences for the clergy and laity of the Diocese regarding the follow-up work of the Crusade, which will be a training school as well.

While these meetings are primarily intended for members of the Episcopal church in an effort to arouse them to more active participation in the Christian life, all others will be welcome. The Crusade is not designed to raise funds nor to win new members to the Episcopal church from other faiths.

The purpose is to bring about a renewal of faith, to mobilize our church into an effective organization, which will answer the charge that the Christian church is not meeting the needs of the modern world.

Following the meeting to be held by the National Crusaders, an intensive follow-up program will be put into effect under which the movement will be carried into every parish and mission in the United States. Tentative plans are being made to have a Preaching Mission in All Saints Episcopal church of this city between now and Easter.

CAMERON CHURCHES HOLD SERVICES AT COUNTY FARM TWICE EACH MONTH

It was recently voted on by the Pastor's Association that twice each month one of the churches would sponsor services at the County Farm for the inmates. This month the Episcopal church, Rev. J. P. Love pastor, has held services at four o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Last Sunday five members of the Methodist choir assisted with song service and devotional.

"One cannot know unless they have attended these services just how appreciative the inmates are, and how much they enjoy these services," said Rev. Love.

Next month another church in town will sponsor the services and every month each in turn will have charge.

304 CLEMENCY ACTS IN 4 DAYS MAS RECORD

TOTAL REACHES 3559 IN RECORD BREAKING POLICY OF MERCY

Austin, Tex., Jan. 18.—Proclamations filed in the secretary of state's office showed Tuesday that during the last four days she was governor, Miriam A. Ferguson granted 304 clemency acts, boosting her total for two years to approximately 3,559.

Newspaper men were engaged in a close check seeking to determine the exact number of clemency acts. For the past four days, clerks were employed night and day in writing the proclamations. The full pardons will approximate 1,350.

Governor Ferguson announced Friday she would hear no more pardon applications after that date and she said Tuesday that with few exceptions, she had abided by the announcement.

One exception was made Monday night when she heard the plea of mother and father of Jack Merritt who arrived here Monday after driving from their South Dakota home in an automobile. Merritt, given two years from Bexar county for robbery by assault and theft over $50, was granted a full pardon and his parents left for the Huntsville penitentiary to take him home with them.

"I just couldn't refuse them after they had come so far; the boy had served more than half of his term with a clean record," said Mrs. Ferguson.

Mrs. Ferguson's clemency acts exceed the number of prisoners who were in the penitentiary when she took over the office. In addition to 1,350 full pardons, she has granted more than 825 conditional pardons.

After announcing her decision to hear no more pardon petitions after Friday, Mrs. Ferguson the last four days spent much of her time signing clemency proclamations officially granting clemency in cases decided at some time ago.

At least 300 sentenced for murder were granted clemency, while ten death sentences were commuted to life terms.

Death sentences of Herman Williams and Cruz Martinez, in connection with the killing of Sterling Huntley, San Antonio geologist, were commuted to life imprisonment.

Among those receiving full pardons in the partial list available today were five sentenced to 99 year prison terms on murder convictions.

Included in the full pardons for major crimes was that of Fletcher Hopper, Hunt county, convicted of murder to serve 20 years.

Mrs. J. R. Bender Announces Names Of Members of Board of Parent-Teachers' Association For Ninth Texas District

Mrs. John R. Bender, newly elected president of the Ninth District Parent-Teacher Association, wishes to announce the official board of the district for the ensuing two year term as follows: President, Mrs. John R. Bender, College Station; Vice-president, Mrs. E. A. Armin, Flatonia; recording secretary, Mrs. W. L. Chick, Waco; treasurer, Mrs. T. G. Curry, Franklin; corresponding secretary, Mrs. C. A. Searcy, Bryan, historian, and Mrs. J. M. Woodson, Temple.

The Ninth District is composed of seventeen counties as follows: Austin, Bell, Bosque, Brazos, Burleson, Coryell, Falls, Grimes, Lee, Leon, Lincolnton, Madison, Robertson and Washington. This district was created by the State Association only three years ago. Much of the pioneer organization was effectively accomplished under the leadership of Mrs. J. C. Baker of Kosse, recently retired president; much, however, remains to be accomplished under the new administration.

It is the opinion of Mrs. Bender that local officers are severely handicapped in their work through lack of information concerning the personnel of district officers and chairmen. She is endeavoring, therefore, to secure adequate publicity throughout the district, that such knowledge may be generally disseminated; hoping thereby to reach local clubs, that they may profit by knowing from whom and from where assistance may be had in developing individual community activities.

Some of the most capable men and women in the entire state have consented to act as chairmen of the various phases of Child Welfare Work in the Ninth District. Each chairman is authority in some specialized line of community interest. The list of district chairmen will be ready for publication soon and local officers will be able to secure valuable advice and assistance from these specialists, in solving such problems as arise from the selection of Literature for Home and School Libraries; Rural Life; Home Economics; Thrift, Recreation; Humane Education; Public Health, Public School Music, etc. Local officers are urged to encourage the use of Parent-Teacher news in their home town paper; also to furnish the local editor with interesting Parent-Teacher items, that nearby clubs may profit by their experience, and be inspired by their accomplishments. Clipping and filing such news items will preserve information that may prove valuable to local officers at some future date.

Doesn't hurt one bit! Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly, you lift it right off with fingers.

Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the foot calluses, without soreness or irritation.

Only a FORD Could Have Done THIS:

1. New York to Los Angeles (3,306 miles) in 5 days 2 hours and 13 minutes.
2. In HIGH GEAR all the way; low and reverse gears removed.
3. Average 21.25 miles per gallon of gas at 40-45 miles per hour.
4. Total fuel expense, $37.24 for 3,306 miles; average 1.1c per mile.
5. Without change of oil, without tire trouble (except 3 punctures).
6. Longest day's run, 756 miles; shortest, 516 miles.

Proof of the World's Lowest Cost Transportation

"Cannon Ball" Baker knows automobiles. He ought to. He has made 75 coast-to-coast trips. His latest trip was in a Ford Roadster—sealed in high gear, with both low and reverse removed. Never, in the whole history of the automobile, has there been a more wonderful demonstration of power, speed, dependability, endurance and ECONOMY.

Think of it—from New York to Los Angeles, 3,306 miles, in high gear every foot of the way, in 122 hours 13 minutes—at a total fuel expense of $37.24—an average of 1.1c per mile.

We Ford dealers have preached economy and dependability and SOLD it for years. Yet here is the most astounding demonstration of the REAL economy and endurance of a Ford car we have ever seen.

What "Cannon Ball" Baker's Ford roadster did for him, any Ford roadster will do. Not that you may ever want to break a transcontinental record—but you do want, and can get, the same economy, the same stalwart and indomitable endurance, the same almost incredible dependability, in the LOWEST-COST automobile the world has ever seen—a FORD.

DR. W. B. CALDWELL
AT THE AGE OF 83

To Dr. W. B. Caldwell, of Monticello, Ill., a practicing physician for 47 years, it seemed cruel that so many constipated infants and children had to be kept "stirred up" and half sick by taking cathartic pills, tablets, salts, calomel and nasty oils.

While he knew that constipation was the cause of nearly all children's little ills, he constantly advised mothers to give only a harmless laxative which would help to establish natural bowel "regularity."

In Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin mothers have a regulating laxative which they can depend upon whenever a child is constipated, bilious, feverish or sick from a cold, indigestion or sour

Buy a large 60-cent bottle at any store that sells medicine or write "Syrup Pepsin," Monticello, Illinois, for a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE and just see for yourself how perfectly it cleanses and regulates the bowels of infants and children.

TELLS OF WORK DONE IN KOREA LEPER COLONY

STORY OF BRAVE SACRIFICE
MADE BY CHRISTIAN
WORKERS

Kwangju Leper Colony.
Nov. 24, 1926.

Dear Friends:-

Christmas greetings to you all. Did you know Christmas will reach us before it will you? Well that's a fact and Santa may not have much left when we finish with him. You see the sun rises first out here in the Pacific and then it rolls on around to the rest of you, a little later. The lepers are looking and planning for a great time Christmas for on this occasion they enjoy beef and rice cakes.

We doctors were out for a hunt last Friday and had a fine time. Got two deer, nine ducks and some pheasants. On a hill I found a fresh baby grave where a fox had dug down and had eaten the body. This often happens out here where the bodies are not buried deep enough. One day an old man came to me. He had picked up a piece of bread placed at the grave for the fox and in the bread was dynamite. As he chewed down the explosion took place and he lost his teeth, jaw and almost his life. Two of my dogs have been killed from eating such bait. Upon another mountain I was hunting with my boys and within we found a large jar containing baby bones. This method is used to get ahead of the foxes I suppose. Some years ago we often saw a baby's body wrapped in straw and hung up in a tree. This was to keep away the evil spirits. This is now against the law.

Last week and old man came asking for an operation upon his eye stating that he had been operated on in Seoul, for cataract and had lost one eye. He asked that we be very careful for this was his one and last chance for vision. The cataract came out well. He got good vision and returned home as happy as a lark.

Monday we sent the first batch of ten lepers down to the new site to start work on the colony. More will go when temporary shacks have been put up. The lepers will erect the entire plant doing all the work themselves. We expect to put up fifty concrete cottages, each to hold 20 lepers and to cost about $250 per cottage.

If you wish to read up on the medical side of the leper work, see the Journal of the A. M. A. Oct., 3, 1926 and the Southern Medical Journal of October.

As most of you know I have been begging for years for $25,000 for the erection of a leper industrial farm where we could allow a lot of these cripples to make their living. I had about concluded that there was no more money in the states. Think of my surprise last week when I noticed that St. Louis is erecting a modern hospital at a cost of $125,000 for snakes. The St. Louis people had better put an extra guard around that pile of dollars for if I can't secure the amount wanted for this plant I might go over there and bring half that pile here where it will help human beings. For some weeks there have been ten leper girls here at our gate begging for a small corner in the colony. They would gladly sleep in the straw if we would take them in and provide the food and treatment. Four dollars a month will do this. I expect to die and pass on to that glorious home He has gone to prepare for us but before I go I wish to build up a colony where many of these poor outcasts who are dreaded and feared by all may have a haven of rest, hear the Gospel and rest their weary broken bodies.

Our leper workmen will be living in shacks this winter so we will be glad to receive warm sweaters, overalls or any old clothes for the work. Several have asked about sending money, personal checks are good here and easy to handle. Pray for us that God will use us, and that the work may go forward.

Yours truly,
R. M. WILSON.

P. S. I am enclosing a copy of a letter written by Miss Appenzeller head of the Ewa College in Seoul. Will you kindly send these two letters to some of your friends or better still have them published in your city paper.

Seoul Korea.
November 1, 1926.

My Dear Mr. Wilson:-

Though I have been interested in your leper work for many years, I was not prepared for the inspiring sight that I saw on my recent visit to Kwangju. Perhaps others may see something of what this work means through another visitor's eyes, so I should like to tell you something of how the hospital work looked to me.

The first overpowering impression was of the exceeding repulsiveness of the disease. I had never known le-rosy when I had seen it before, but now I think I shall never fail to know one of the 20,000 lepers wandering uncared for in this land. But, though the sights I saw were so revolting, I was surprised not to feel any fear of the disease—that was all driven out by the sympathy that surges over one at such sight. On Saturday afternoon I saw the patients receiving their weekly hypos of chaulmoogra oil. There the leper doctors and his helpers, whom you have trained, seemed to be doing their work efficiently, and the poor sufferers were taking their jab without a whimper. While many of the lepers were disfigured, many had improved so much that they looked as well as anybody, with clear, healthy complexions. There are so many children there—a pitiful thing it is, and yet a mercy, when you know that they may be cured, and that they are in a happy, Christian home while they are in the colony.

Somehow, the thing that kept coming to my mind all the time I was there was that this place is one that our Lord Jesus must love; here the poor outcasts are receiving love and care, as He gave such unfortunates long ago, and here His great teaching about the Kingdom of God and what it means is being taught by being put to practice. The least of all God's children are brought to Him and taught His love and redeeming grace those who are too sick to be about are lovingly cared for, while all the rest take part in some useful task for the common good. One poor man who had neither finger or toes, only stumps, had taught himself to knit, and showed us laboriously, but so proudly, how well he could do that one thing. There are no idlers in this place, and even on Saturday afternoon, the half holiday, the people looked busy. How glad I was to see the houses built by the men, even the bricks made by them, and furniture, tin work, clothing—everything that they use showed something of their own work.

I think this is a true bit of the Kingdom of God, too, because it is an example to Christians everywhere. I have never seen a more inspiring or attentive audience than that which greeted me on Sunday afternoon—600 or more, men, women and children, all lepers, packed in tightly on the floor, all in white, all with Bible and hymnbooks. So many of the women have sweet faces, some of them are even pretty, and the little children as attractive as children anywhere. They recited the first Psalm for me, and when I asked how many were Christians before they entered the colony, only eight held up their hands. They all are proud to call themselves Christians now, and are earnestly trying to know Christ. My little girl was there, the poor, ragged little waif whom I couldn't resist adopting when she stood at the gate the day before, but now so smiling and clean and happy that it was hard to recognize her as the same child. She had walked many miles to the hospital and just stood at the gate, hoping someone would let her into paradise. She had no home or parents, had been kicked and driven around till she found her way to this home. How could we turn her away, just for the sake of $4.00 a month?

"An institution is but the elongated shadow of a personality," so this wonderful, Christ like work is just the expression of the personality of the good Dr. Greatheart in charge, and of his sweet, sympathetic, motherly helpmate. It was a lovely thing to watch you two with these people you have loved and helped for so long. You know every one of them, just when they came and all about them, and when you aren't with them you are planning for them and getting the help that they must have. It is work that few could have done or would have had the courage and faith to do, and thirteen years of such service is a record that the Master must be very happy about. I thank you for the time you took in showing me the work. Surely every missionary in Korea should visit this colony and every Christian should take it as part of his responsibility in helping to bring even these least to light and life thru the Gospel.

With best wishes and prayers for your work,

Faithfully yours,
Alice R. Appenzeller.

MRS. GEO. D. FISHER ATTENDS W. U. MEET

NEW YORK OFFICIALS STRESS
VALUE OF THE GREAT
TELEGRAPH SYSTEM

Mrs. George D. Fisher, local manager of the Western Union Telegraph Company has just returned from a conference in Houston, at which several of the officials from the company's New York Office were present. One of the chief topics of discussion was the growing demand made by the public for suggestions as to how the telegraph can be used in the solution of specific business problems. In the old days people merely called up the telegraph company and asked for rates but now they call it for what is, in effect, merchandising counsel. It is to further the rendering of such assistance that conferences of this sort are being held in various parts of the country.

Time was when telegrams were used only in emergencies but now, conditions are changed. Telegrams are now not only used in emergencies, but are becoming a part of every day business and social life.

Business men use them to route salesmen, to make sales, to collect delinquent accounts, to answer inquiries, and for many other purposes in the conduct of everyday affairs and their wives use them to invite guests to their social functions.

Among uses of the telegraph discussed at the conference were the money transfer service and the use of the telegram as a vacation necessity. Business men keep their representatives on the road supplied with cash by the use of the money transfer service, make payment of goods with the order in the same way, use the service for sending cash with bids on work and in various other ways. Many business men take pads of telegraph blanks with them on their vacations. They use them to telegraph ahead for reservations at hotels, to remember the home folks by letting them know of their safe arrival, of their itinerary, and by sending dad and mother greetings on their birthdays, to keep in touch with the office during their absence, to pay the rent and insurance premiums and for many other purposes.

Mrs. Almada Hendricks, age 79 years, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. E. Wheeler, Sunday night at 8:45.

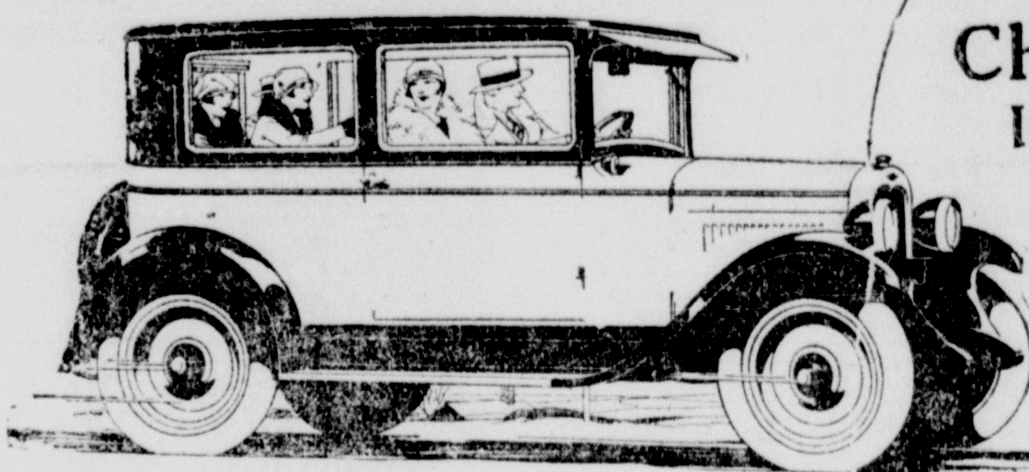

Mrs. Hendricks was the mother of four sons and one daughter. She united with the Baptist church some 30 years ago and remained true to her religion until the last. Funeral services were conducted at the Baptist church at Dyess Grove Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m. by Rev. Bell of Rogers.

The out of town relatives and friends who attended this funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Ford and daughter, Lillie Mae of Cleburne; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hendricks of Granbury; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hendricks of Cleburne; G. P. Hendricks of Crawford; Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Owens and children of Godley; S. E. Owen, Godley; Mrs. A. L. Hunnicut, Temple; Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Robertson, Temple; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Adams, Little River; Mrs. J. A. Wheeler, Temple; Mrs. O. J. Williams, Cleburne; W. E. Bean, Mexia.

Attorney C. E. Zellener has moved to Belton, where he will be associated in the office with Senator J. W. Thomas.

---Plus an Amazing Reduction in Prices!

America has always expected great things from its greatest industry. But the announcement of the Most beautiful Chevrolet has been the automotive sensation of all time!

Here is a car which in beauty, luxury, quality and modern design challenges the costliest creations of the day.

Here in a price class where average standards have been the rule, is now offered a car so far beyond all expectation that comparisons cease to exist. Seven superb models styled as low priced cars were never styled before and offering such distinction as: full crown one-piece fenders, bullet type lamps and 'fish tail' rear deck modeling. New and supremely beautiful bodies by Fisher. And, above all, infinitely finer quality—the result of a host of additional improvements such as A. C. oil filter, A. C. air cleaner, coincidental steering and ignition lock, larger 17" steering wheel, gasoline gauge and many, many others.

All this is combined to a supreme degree in the long famous leader of the Chevrolet line—the Coach. It would be a brilliant achievement for any manufacturer merely to design such a splendid car to sell at any reasonably low price. But to sell it at the amazing price of $595 is a feat of history making proportions. This one price reduction alone would suffice to center worldwide attention on Chevrolet. But due to economies of tremendous production plus the vast resources of General Motors, Chevrolet also announces striking price reductions on other models.

For years Chevrolet has led the world in providing Quality at Low Cost. But now with a new and more beautiful car—with a car infinitely finer in quality and greatly lower in price, Chevrolet stands supreme and unchallenged in dollar-for-dollar value!

No matter in what price class you intend to buy or whether you plan to spend more or less than the price of a Chevrolet, come in today and see the most beautiful low priced Coach ever designed. Admire its marvelous style and grace. Mark its many new fine-car features. Learn for yourself by personal inspection why, at its new low price, it is the greatest sensation of America's greatest industry.

On December 27 in a California town, a little girl three years old was trapped in her bed room by fire and burned to death. The fire broke out in the bedroom where she was sleeping, during the daytime, and spread so rapidly that rescue was prevented and the family, just finishing dinner, barely escaped with their lives, some being badly burned. It seems impossible that a fire could gain such headway in so short a time, and yet such tragedies are daily recorded in the papers of the country.

Most of the fires start on the inside of buildings. Every home should have proper first stops at strategic points. These will help make it reasonably safe. The National Board of Fire Underwriters has published a pamphlet entitled, "Dwelling Houses," and goes into this matter quite thoroughly and also gives the minimum specifications for the construction of small dwellings drawn up by the Hoover Committee, of which the National Board Consulting Engineer is chairman.

If the manufacturers of building material, contractors and supply men would simply co-operate with the insurance companies in their endeavor to encourage the erection of buildings of a fire resisting character, thousands of lives could be saved annually and millions in property withheld from destruction.

With such sad cases before us, it is too much to ask public co-operation in the campaign against fire?

THE HOME TOWN PAPER

The merchant's relations to his home town paper are supposed to be those of an advertiser. That is a narrow view. The home town paper is an institution. The merchant can no more escape its influence than anybody else in the community, whether he advertises in it or not.

Yet, as a consistent advertiser his relations with the local newspaper become definitely constructive. He becomes a part of this institution without which no community can express itself. Whatever its merit or demerits, the home town paper is an expression of the community. Literally it is the "Voice of the people" in a sense that cannot hold true for any other medium.

This institution keeps friends in touch with friends. To the best of its ability it answers Who, What, When, Where, How and Why? It brings the individual out of himself. It speaks the local language. It interprets community life. Week by week, or day by day, it tells the story of the town and county.

Most of us are so accustomed to the home town paper that we take it as a matter of course. If we think anything about it at all we think of its deficiencies. These are present largely because it is run by fallible human beings. The wonder about the home town paper that it contains so few mistakes, not so many.

To the merchant, especially the home town paper is an opportunity. His business, too, is a local institution. Unless it finds some kind of expression in the home town paper, both the paper and the business have to an important extent failed to function. Each is affected somewhat by every successive failure in this respect.

It does not cost a great deal of money to advertise in the local paper. Most advertisers are over-judicious rather than extravagant. It is the continual message that counts most. Sporadic advertisements now and then are of doubtful value. Perhaps they are better than no advertising at all. Every advertisement placed by a business house should blend into every other advertisement it places. The merchant should think in terms of a campaign rather than in terms of the single insertion.

Vast progress has been made in advertising within recent years. Outstanding examples of it are to be found in the national field. Locally, however, advertising has much room for development. Aside from one or two of the big stores, the average merchant in the average small town gives too little study to the power of advertising.

But conditions are changing. More and more merchants are coming to realize that they are losing money and prestige when they are not to be found in the advertising columns of the home town paper. This is one of the healthiest signs in the field of retail merchandising.

DON'T "THROW THE GAME"

The nation was shocked a few days ago by revelations of alleged corruption in several of its most highly respected baseball teams. That some of the most famous players on the diamond had accepted or been offered money to "throw the game" was a startling revelation not alone of man's inherent weakness, but of the tremendous temptations that he is called upon to withstand.

They are all about us, these temptations—petty and powerful, subtle and open, slinking and arrogant. Not only baseball players are called upon to face them. Every day, everywhere, they are whispering into men's minds the poisoned lure to "throw the game."

Discontent, Misunderstanding, Disappointment, Jealousy, Selfishness, Greed—these are the temptations that pierce their cancer growth into the souls of men in high places and low. These are the temptations that urge a man, in a moment of anger, of chagrin, or despair, or covetousness, to "throw the game."

A sales clerk who, piqued by a reprimand, rebuffs a customer and turns a friend of the store into an enemy, "throws the game."

The mill hand who, resentful of a grievance, real or fancied, stands by while the output of hours of toil is destroyed, "throws the game."

The man anywhere, anytime, who knocks the efforts of his colleagues, the purpose of his employer, the integrity of their establishment, like Eddie Cicotte, "throws the game."

The man who speaks of his family with criticism and disparagement, instead of with respect and pride, "throws the game."

The man who fails always to do his best, to keep faith with all that is true and noble, to play his part with heart and soul, that man "throws the game."

The man who throws the game cheats not only his employer. He cheats his associates, he cheats the public and above all he cheats himself. He sells his immortal soul for a mundane, fleeting price.

NEWSPAPERS AND FARMERS

There was never a time when so much was done to make the country newspapers interesting for the farmers. The country weekly and the small city daily carry editorials and family news of the town and neighborhood that interests the whole family living on the farm.

Father and mother are interested in the market. The young people read ads of the new things in the stores and show windows. All are interested in the entertainments, church and social news.

There is more interest than might be imagined in the editorial page. A weekly or daily without editorials means a newspaper without dignity or influence.

It's time to make a resolution to keep your resolutions.

Everytime we get on our ear somebody steps in our face.

It is strange, but when a man sows his wild oats he just raises Cain.

Many a man keeps his nose to the grindstone so he can turn it up at the bill collectors.

That's why pipes are better than cigarettes. They go out so often you don't get much smoke.

D. A. R. MEETING

Mrs. R. H. McIntosh, assisted by Mesdames Pearl Clement, Lottie Bigbee and S. P. Cross, was hostess to a delightful meeting of the D. A. R. chapter at her home on last Thursday afternoon. Roll call was answered with a short sketch of a prominent woman or a famous painting of Revolutionary or Colonial times.

An interesting article was read by Mrs. B. J. Baskin on Button Winnet, a signer of the Declaration of Independence from Georgia. It was discovered after his death that his will had been stolen, and recently it was located in a private collection of papers in New York. The State of Georgia is now suing for this will to be returned to Georgia. The signature of Button Winnet recently sold for $65,000.

Mrs. Baskin also read an interesting paper on Stone Mountain, and presented each member of the chapter a stone from Stone Mountain.

These delightful hostesses served crushed chicken, apricot salad, nut bread and hot chocolate. A flower contest was enjoyed and Mrs. Gillis won the prize, a blooming pot plant.

Mrs. T. V. Adams of Buckholts was a visitor from the Bettie Martin chapter at Temple. Mrs. W. B. Thomas of Rogers and Mrs. Sam Mewhinney of Buckholts were out of town members present.

Mrs. P. O. Adams and Mrs. C. W. Lawrence were chapter guests.

GOT "BUMPED" BY COTTON AGAIN

SAME OLD STORY OVER AND OVER IN EVERY COTTON STATE.

Atlanta, Ga.—(Special).—"We invited the present unsatisfactory cotton price situation when we failed to take notice of the danger signals flying on every hand at planting time last spring," declared H. G. Hastings, widely recognized agricultural authority and President of the Georgia Association, a statewide development organization with the avowed purpose of breaking up the slavery to cotton that exists so largely in Georgia and other cotton states.

"It looks as if our cotton farmers enjoy having the very life 'bumped' out of them ever so often the way they come back and invite 'bumping' every period of high priced cotton. It's a mystery the way they keep coming back for more punishment in the face of repeated 'bumps'."

Our farm folks, our country bankers, supply merchants, etc., must all get it through their heads that the rules of the cotton growing game are changing. One-third to one-half bale per acre is a money loser on any price that is in sight. Low yields per acre always means high cost per pound.

There is one answer, and one answer only, to the cotton-growing problem, and that is less acres in cotton and more cotton per acre. As the yield per acre goes up, the cost of making it per pound automatically comes down. We can't have much control over selling price, but we can keep production costs down.

Less acres in cotton means more acres available for food and grain crops, cows, hogs and chickens. Cost of making cotton is largely a food and grain cost, food for the family and food for the working live stock. Corn, oats, hay and forage for the mules, horses, cows, hogs and chickens; meat, meal, fresh and canned vegetables and fruits for the family table are made at half the cost or less of what is paid for same to merchants or dealers.

In almost every cotton growing community there are one or more farmers "sitting easy" right now. The secret of their easy posture is that they own their cotton instead of owe it for food or grain or borrowed money. They are not pinched. They have corn or other grain in the crib, hay or forage a-plenty in stack or barn, meat either in smokehouse or on hoof, milk and butter from the cows and plenty of chickens for regular use, as well as when the preacher comes around. Most of it not all the year round there are fresh vegetables from the garden and home-canned goods from their own shelves instead of the merchant's.

The safe way, the only way to make "sit easy" in times like this is to live at home and board at the same place."

WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENT

The following announcement will be of great interest to friends in Cameron, as the groom-to-be, Dr. Emil Klatt, formerly lived in Cameron. He is the son of Mrs. J. F. Guggolz, received his A. B. and B. S. Degree at State University and last year completed his course at the Medical Department of the University of Texas at Galveston where he was very popular in social circles; at present he is an interne at the John Sealy Hospital at Galveston. Dr. Klatt will return to Cameron after July 15 this year and will locate in Cameron.

"Mr and Mrs. William T. Armstrong announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Armstrong to Dr. Emil Klatt, son of Mrs. J. F. Guggolz of Cameron, the wedding to be solemnized at Trinity Church in May.

The announcement was made at an elegantly appointed luncheon given at noon by the charming bride-elect's younger sister, Miss Esther Armstrong, a debutant of next year, who is home from National Park Seminary Washington, D. C. for the Christmas holidays.

The drawing room and living room as well as dining room, gave evidence of affectionate interest among the invited guests, the close friends of the charming honoree, being beautifully expressed in gorgeous flowers.

The luncheon table in the dining room was exquisite in its appointments. The table was covered in a handsome embroidered cut work and lace cloth. A bridal motif was emphasized in the floral centerpiece, a long plateau effect of bride roses, white carnations, lillies of the valley and narcissi blossoms. Bordered in soft white silk, a finishing touch was given in tiny white satin ribbon bows, and soft billowy white illusion.

A corsage bouquet of pink Killarney roses and lillies of the valley was worn by the honor guest.

Place cards were miniature cupids holding a horn which held the note, revealing the announcement, which when read caused great rejoicing and the bride-to-be showered with hearty good wishes for future happiness.

The bride-to-be is one of Galveston's loveliest young girls, of brilliant mind and charm of personality, which has always made her a great social favorite. She is a graduate of Westover College, Millsbury, Conn., and University of Maine. As a debutante of three years ago, she was crowned queen of the royal court of King Frivolous, M. M. Bal Masque, a gorgeous coronation, when as royal consort she reigned with queenly dignity, magnificently attired in robes of the Spanish court.

IF SKIN BREAKS OUT AND ITCHES APPLY SULPHUR

Just the moment you apply Mentho-Sulphur to an itching, burning or broken out skin, the itching stops and healing begins, says a noted skin specialist. This sulphur preparation, made into a pleasant cold cream, gives such a quick relief, even to fiery eczema, that nothing has ever been found to take its place.

Because of its germ-destroying properties, it quickly subdues the itching, cools the irritation and heals the eczema right up, leaving a clear, smooth skin in place of ugly eruptions, rash, pimples or roughness.

You do not have to wait for improvement. It quickly shows. You can get a little jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur at any drug store.

Telegrams of congratulations were received from the bride-elect's mother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Winifred Ernest Eaton of East Orange, New Jersey and her grandmother, Mrs. Walter Gresham, wife of the late Col. Gresham, former congressman who for many years represented Galveston's interests at the national capital, and bridegroom's mother at Cameron.

For Rent—Seven room house. Corner 3rd and Crockett Streets. All modern conveniences. Bath, lavatory and sink. See Robert Smith or phone 507.

James Hairston Gets 15 Years In Prison

Vernon, Jan. 19.—James H. Hairston was found guilty on a charge of robbery with firearms in connection with the robbery of the bank at Odell, December 18, and was sentenced to 15 years in the penitentiary by a jury in the Fifty-sixth district court Wednesday morning. Defense counsel has not indicated whether a new trial will be asked. The jury deliberated about 15 hours.

Hairston entered a plea of guilty at the opening of the trial. Clyde Stratton and Luther Huffman, also indicted for the robbery of the Odell bank, were arranged in court. Shortly after Stratton pleaded guilty. Huffman pleaded not guilty and counsel asked for a change of venue. The action was overruled by the court and the counsel immediately asked for continuance.

The court overruled the motion and the case was called for trial.

lene. "There is where I committed my first crime," he said. "Rosa gave me $100 to put in a bank and I had $40 which had been paid for chickens. I met a companion and bad company. We had some drinks and they proposed to me to go to Fort Worth and we took the money and left. I was indicted for embezzlement and sentenced for two years. They sent me to the prison farm at Hillsboro. I was 17 years old. I worked on the T. and B. V. railroad a while and then went to the walls. Later I worked with other prisoners on the state road which was then being built. Later they took us to the turpentine farm and then to the Brazos Valley cane farm. This was a hell on earth. When I served my time I was discharged and given $5. I spent $4 for a pair of shoes. This was in January 1909. I spent 50c for something to eat and 50c for a bed and this left me broke. As I walked down the street I saw a sign "Men Wanted" and found a recruiting office for the army. I enlisted under the name of George J. Stovall the latter name being that of my mother's people. They sent me to Fort Sam Houston at San Antonio. Later that year we went to Dallas for an exposition and on the way up I got in a fight with the cook and punched out one of his eyes. They put me under arrest and after about one week I deserted and went home to my people near Fort Worth. I stayed there for a few days and went to Abilene and from there to Ovilla where I met Miss Minnie Laughlin and on December 15, 1909 we were married at Buffalo Gap. We settled down and I tried to farm. We made a failure and then we went to Ovilla where I worked for Ace Edwards. In the fall of 1910 a boy was born and we named him James Delbert. He is now 16 and I love my boy. I saw him last in 1924 at Jarrell in Bell County."

Hassell then related how he had worked for a paving company in Abilene laying the first pavement. Then to Fort Worth where with his wife and baby he rented a house at 1414 Evans Avenue.

"Later my wife wanted to go back home and I told her I would go to the Kansas wheat fields to work and I was to write every day and she said she would write to me. I wrote every day but received no letter for a week or more. Finally I got a letter by registered mail in which she told me she was through with me. I tore it up. I was mad. I enlisted in the navy under my right name and then I got scared they would find out about my desertion from the army and I deserted the navy. I went to Oklahoma but was later arrested and sent to the naval prison in California. Later they sent me to Fort Leavenworth, Kansas and then later to Norfolk, Virginia where I served for fraud and desertion.

All this time Hassell declared he had tried to effect a reconciliation with his wife whom he confesses as the only woman he ever loved. He said he later found that his letters had been intercepted to her and her letters to him had fallen to the same fate. The tangled threads of this unhappy romance ran through several years until he later learned of the influence of his wife's parents in bringing about the estrangement, he said. "They didn't like me. I had been a convict and they thought I was bad."

"After my discharge from the Naval prison I worked my way back to Ft. Worth. My wife and her family had moved to Winters, Texas. I thought of my boy and I brought him some little suits in Fort Worth and went to Winters. I took the kid his little clothes and they let me see him but I had to leave again. I met a woman in San Angelo that had a boy about like my own and we lived together. We went to California. We lived at Los Angeles, Chico, Fresno and other places in California. I ranged around over many states and finally came back to Fort Worth.

"My wife had moved to Abilene. I went there and tried to see my boy. They told me he had been taught his papa was dead and they agreed to let me see him if I wouldn't reveal my identity. I agreed to this so I could see him. I next saw my boy at Jarrell in Bell County. When I went up to the house they threw rocks at me. My boy said, "you are not my papa, you are just pretending you are my papa," and he threw stones at me. I had a kodak. I wanted a picture of him. I asked a doctor in the little town to get me a picture of him. My wife had married again. I then went to Waco to work for Sam Hassell for a while.

"From there I went to Galveston and got a job on the Tomaha, a tanker, plying between that port and Tampico. This was in the summer of 1924. I got a letter from my sister telling me my brother had died in March of that year. I was the only single one so I thought I had better go back and help his wife take care of the crops. I stayed there a while and then went to Blaire, Oklahoma. I came back and helped them make another crop.

"My sister-in-law talked it over and we consulted the Bible and decided to get married. I wanted to help take care of the children, so we got married. She was soon to become a mother. I married my brother's wife in October 1924. We made another crop in 1925. We moved to Parnum county in December 1925, reaching there on the 23rd day of the month."

"I had been married three times before that and I lived with seven women to whom I was not married. I lived in 27 states and Old Mexico part of the time."

Asked if he had ever made any profession of faith Hassell replied: "A long time ago my mother had a book and that book had a picture in it that has stayed with me. It was a picture of angels standing near the lake of fire and some little children playing around. In the back ground was the devil. The angels were keeping the little children from falling in. Somehow I don't believe in hell fire and brimstone as some of them say. That picture worried me more than this big electric chair does. A fellow sometimes prays when he's in trouble but he ought to think about that beforehand. As far as I am concerned now, I don't intend to ask God for any mercy. I believe I'll have another chance after this life. Then if I don't make good I'll be lost. Anyway they ought to feed a fellow good when he's in prison and he wouldn't be hungry. He could then spend some time thinking about these things. Well, I am much obliged for the cigars."

Mrs. Moody Breaks Custom

Mrs. Moody, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Paxton of Abilene, sat in front of the inaugural platform. Had Mrs. Moody followed custom she would have sat on the platform with James E. Ferguson, former governor and husband of Governor Ferguson.

Moody Quotes Scripture

Moody who will continue to teach his large Methodist Sunday School class of Texas University students twice quoted the scriptures.

"I recognize that the people of Texas hold their public offices in sacred trust," said the man who in last summer's campaign charged that Governor Ferguson and her husband fostered "irresponsible government" and the officials of Texas, "in the proper appreciation of the attitude which the people have toward public office should feel that from the infinite spaces of this state, they say to their officers what the Lord said to Moses in the wilderness on Mount Siant, 'put off their shoes from thy feet for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground.'"

Concluding, Moody said, "and now as we go to give ourselves to the service of the public interest, I ask, as did the Hebrew of old, that God 'give me now knowledge and wisdom to come in and go out before this people; for who can govern this people that is become so great.'"

Address Is Very Earnest

The simplicity and earnestness with which Moody pledged his full strength to serving the public welfare, friends said, was characteristic of his career. Rated a most effective stump speaker, he spoke dispassionately, not speaking to achieve any oratorical flights.

Setting is Dramatic Dramatic events were intensified by the effective setting. Mrs. Ferguson, a grandmother, handed over her office to a young man, her conqueror, in a bitter political campaign, and each showed by their remarks that the campaign had not been entirely forgotten.

Not Ferguson Choice

"Frankly, he was not my choice for governor," Mrs. Ferguson said, and the crowd yelled in apparent disapproval.

"The people of Texas commission us to place their government upon a plane which will restore public confidence in existing forms and receive the respect of all men," Moody asserted.

The big crowd, unmindful of the drizzle, was keenly attentive, lest it miss some word that came from the flag draped platform, sheltered and framed by the high marble arch of the main capital doorway.

Governor Ferguson was dressed in a black satin gown, stylish of mode. Her hat was black, and carried a rhinestone ornament. On the fur collar of her coat was a small bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley.

She was calm and apparently little concerned as she read her address.

Five living ex-governors were on the rostrum when Moody took the oath. They were: J. D. Sayers, O. B. Colquitt, James E. Ferguson, Miriam A. Ferguson, W. P. Hobby and Pat. M. Neff.

Cancel Order for Hogs; Farmers Wait for Arrival; Hogs no Good

While farmers waiting all day Wednesday in Cameron for a chance to buy hogs from the car that had been advertised by the Commercial Club to arrive here Wednesday the order had been canceled on Tuesday, it became known here Thursday morning.

A large number of farmers came to get their hogs, not knowing the order had been canceled.

The announcement had been made that the hogs had been ordered and funds to pay for them had been obtained from the Citizens National Bank.

Wm. M. Cobb, chairman of the committee, said that only a limited number of hogs could be obtained and the class was not satisfactory and there was too much variation in the weights and the order was canceled by J. W. Coleman, president of the club, not wanting to receive hogs here that would be unsatisfactory.

Farmers who have depended on these hogs must now go elsewhere as many others have done during the period of delay in getting the car here. The failure of the club to get these hogs is a disappointment to many and criticism is being heard.

When the matter of the purchase of a car load of hogs by the commercial club was first considered, it was urged by some of the members that there would be a variation in weights and suggested that the hogs might not be of a class desired by the farmers, but the committee assured the various members that the hogs would be uniform and of good stock and that they had every confidence in Col. French who came here and arranged with the club for the delivery of the hogs.

The club now has under plans for development the grape lands near Hoyte and it is said that 75 acres have been pledged. The club through its special committee is negotiating for 100,000 cuttings for these farmers who are waiting their arrival so they can begin the planting. It is hoped that the matter will succeed and will not fail as did the hog contract.
